CAPTURE OF GALVESTON, TEXAS, BY THE CONFEDERATES. Federal Forces Made Prisoners The Harriet Lane Captured and the Flag Ship Blown Up. NEW YORK, Jan. 11 .- The steamship Creole

arrived here to-night from New Orleans on the 3d. She was detained by Major Gen'l Banks, and brings dispatches to Major Gen'l Halleck. She passed several gunboats, bound up the river; and, also, passed the transport Merrimac, with troops, at Southwest Pass, and likewise the gunboat Kensington. Purser Cook reports, by the arrival of the gunboat Clifton at Southwest Pass on the evening of the 3d, that early on the morning of the first of January the rebels made an attack by land and water on the Federal forces at Gal-Our gunboats were attacked by five rebel steamers, which were protected by double rows of tales of cotton, and loaded with troops armed with rifles, muskets, etc. The Harriet Lane was captured by boarding, after all the officers, including Capt. Wainwright and Lieut. Lee and all the crew-one hundred and thirty, all told-had been killed by musketry from rebel steamers. My informant states that only one or two officers and twelve or fifteen of the crew escaped death. The gunboats Clifton and Owasco were engaged, but escaped, the former losing no men. Only one was wounded. The Owasco lost one killed and thirteen wounded.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—Advices have been received here that Galveston was attacked by land and water on the morning of January 1st. Col. Burrell and his men are all killed or taken prisoners. Four rebel rams made an attack on the Harriet Lane, and carried her by boarding. Capt. Wainwright, Lieut. Lee and all the men were either killed or taken prisoners. Captain Wilson, of the Owasco, was killed.

Commander Renshaw blew up the flag-ship Westfield, to prevent her from falling into the hands of the rebels. He and his first heutenant, Zimmerman, were killed. Two barges, loaded with coal, also fell into the hands of the rebels.

The Westfield, flag-ship, being ashore in another channel, her crew were transferred to our transports; and Commander Renshaw, fearing she would fall into the hands of the rebels blew her up. By some mismanagement or accident, the explosion occurred before the boat containing Commander Renshaw, Zimmerman, and the boat's crew got away, and they were consequently blown up with the ship.

The crew of the Westfield arrived at New Orleans in the transports, and the remaining troops are on their way back. They did not arrive of Galveston until the place was evacuated. All our fleet is on its way to New Orleans. The rebel force is estimated to be about five thousand, under Gen. Magruder. Our land forces were under the command of Col. Burrell They most probably did not exceed three hundred-the residue not having arrived, or not discmbarked at the time of the fight. Our loss is estimated at from a hundred and fifty to one hundred and sixty killed, and two hundred taken prisoners, the navy suffering the most.

It is thought the rebel loss is much more, as our guns were firing grape and canister con-tinually into their midst. The rebels had several batteries on shore. The Federal troops were en one of the long wharves, and it is said they repulsed two charges of the rebels before they surrendered. Advices from New Orleans state that Jacob Barker's National Advocate published an extra on the 2d, containing rebel reports of victories at Memphis and Vicksburg, and Jeff. Davis's speech at Jackson. Gen. Banks sent a corporal's guard to Barker's office, and the Advocate has for the third time been suppressed. This step has given great satisfaction to the Union men.

Three negro regiments are to do garrison duty in Forts Jackson at St. Philip and Pike. Admiral Farragut was about to attack Port Hudson, but was probably waiting for Gen. Banks to make a land attack in conjunction

A rumer was current at New Orleans that Jeff. Davis was preparing an expedition to retake that city. Rebel Reports of the Capture of Galveston-

Gen. Magruder says the Harriet Lane is but little Injured. HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Jan. 11.—The Richmond Enquirer, of the 10th

Mobile, Jan. 8.—A special dispatch from Jackson to-day, says that the New Orleans Delta, of the 6th inst., received at Ponchetoula, contains the following: About 2 o'clock New Year's morning, four rebel gunboats came down Buffalo Bayou into

Galveston Bay, and ran alongside the Harrist Lane, one on each side. The Texan sharp-shooters then commenced an assault on her, and soon succeeded in killing all the gunners, and Capt. Wainwright, her commander. The assailants then boarded her, and, after a desperate struggle, captured the vessel. The rebel gunboats were lined and fortified with cotton bales, after the manner of the boats in New Orleans, known as the Montgomery

The Westfield, under Commander Renshaw, determined not to be taken, and after a consultation of officers and men, all agreed not to surrender. They blew her up with all on board, including her commander, only eight escaping. The remainder of the Yankee fleet and one transport escaped.

Two canal boats at the wharf, with two companies of the 42d Massachusetts volunteers, were captured.

The Richmond papers also contain a dispatch from then. Magruder, concerning the capture of the Harriet Lane, in which he says: "I have taken 600 prisoners, and a large quantity of valuable stores, arms, &c. The Lane is but

A Federal vessel was placed to reconnoiter the harbor to watch the Harriet Lane, and prevent the Confederates from sending her to sea.

FROM VICKSBURG. The Repulse of Gen saerman Confirmed-The Fastre Forces Re-embark. CAIRO, Jan. 11 .- An arrival to-night from the month of the Yazoo brings authentic accounts from Vicksburg.

General Sherman's repulse was complete, and the entire force, under the direction of Gen. McClernand, re-embarked on Saturday on their transports, closely pursued by the rebels' advance, which coming in range of our gunboats, were driven back with severe loss.

At last accounts the entire fleet of transports, with the troops, had arrived at Island No. 92, on their way to Napoleon.

There is nothing definite from Gen. Banks or from Admiral Farragut, though rumors of their advance were in circulation. advance were in circulation.

The engagement at Vicksburg was less general than heretofore reported. The principal fighting was done by the center under command of Generals Smith and Blair, and the conduct of the latter is highly spoken of. Our loss, as near as could be ascertained, was 600 killed, 1,500 wounded and 1,000 missing. Capt. Gwinn, advance were in circulation.

of the gunboat Benton, died of wounds re-ceived at Harris' Bluff. guerillas at Bradley's Landing, ten miles above Memphis, on the 8th.

CAIRO, Jan. 11.—Capt. Moore, with about 100 men, attacked a camp of 300 Rebels at Huntoon's Mills, 36 miles east of Fort Pillow, on the morning of the 8th inst. The Rebels were completely surprised. Sixteen were killed and 46 Fifty horses and a lot of small arms were captured. Two Federal soldiers were wounded only. The expedition was absent from Fort Ely about 27 hours.

A Rebel Camp Surprised.

From Nashville. NASHVILLE, Jan. 11.—The Rebel Forrest's advance is at Franklin. His last line of pickets extend this side three miles, collecting horses, provisions and conscripts.

Four boats, with army stores, arrived here to-day. The river is new stationary.

Federal Mevements in North Caroline.

RALKIGH, N. C., Jan. 2.—The State Journal has reliable information from Newbern, that the enemy, not less than 80,000 strong, are on the coast, and a most formidable fleet at Beaufort. It is supposed that an attack is meditated on Wilmington and Goldebero'.

Bragg's Retreat and Morgan's Raid. CHATTANOOGA, Jan. 9.—It is now ascertained that the enemy returned from his position on Saturday night and Sanday morning seven miles beyond Stewart's creek. His cavalry returned after learning of the withdrawal of Gen. Morgan has returned safe after destroy ing the Nashville railroad within four miles of Louisville. He also destroyed the Lexingten and Covington Railroad, and paroled a large number of prisoners.

MOBILE, Jan. 8 .- The Advertiser and Register has the following private dispatch from Chattanooga:

Being outnumbered more than two to one by Being outnumbered more than two to one by the enemy, and our troops being utterly ex-hausted by the cold and rain and four days in-cersant fighting, with loss in killed and wounded, Gen. Bragg determined to fall back to Duck run. The enemy showed that he was receiving large reinforcements from Kentucky. By a brilliant night march, covered by the admirable cavalry of Wheeler and Wharton the whole army, with its supplies and captured arms, is now concentrating on the new lines, and ready for the enemy whenever he shall advance. Since this army crossed the Tennessee river, we have captured nine thousand five hundred prisoners, small arms and lots of wagons. CHATTANOOGA, Jan. 7 .- The enemy has advanced his lines seven miles this side of Murfreesboro. He has been guilty of the most outrageous enormities-stealing private property, rebbing peaceable citizens and running off negroes. FORTRESS MONROE, Jan. 10.—The flag of truce steamboat New York arrived to day from City Point, in charge of Major L. C. Turner. She brings down 500 Union prisoners and 98 women and children.

The Richmond Examiner, of Friday, Jan. 9, has the following in relation to Bragg's position. Itsays: "Gen. Bragg has fallen back to Tuliahoma, in Coffee county, Tenn., situated on Rock Creek, 71 miles from Nashville, and 32 from Murfreesboro, and on the Nashville and Chattanooga railroad, where it intersects the McG winnyille and Manchester road. As a base of operations and a position of defense we understand that the place offers great adveniages."

A special dispatch to the Charleston papers says that Gen. Bragg addressed the citizens of Dechard and Winchester, Tenn., on Monday, assuring them that he would not leave them to the enemy, but that he would make a stand between Alliance and Tullahoma. He had fallen back to give his men repose after a battle which had exhausted their energy.

The Yankees had advanced six miles from Murfreesboro'. CHARLESTON, Jan. 8.—The following is from Kingston, N. C., to-day's date: The enemy are making preparations for an advance. Reinforcements are daily arriving from Suffolk. The Yankees at Moorhead City and Newbern are 50,000 strong, under the command of Gen. Foster, and will probably attack Charleston, Wilmington, Weldon, and Goldsboro' simultaneously. They are now cooking their marching rations.

KENTUCKY FREE FROM REBELS. The Union Troops in Possession of Cumberland Gap. CINCINNATI, Jan. 9.—The recent Morgan raid into Kentucky seems to have been but a ruse to cover other important advances of the rebels and conceal the real weakness of their force left in the vicinity of East Tennessee. a ruse which was quickly discovered, and has now resulted in a great advantage to the Union arms. Not a guerilla is left in the State. The pursuit of Morgan has been spirited, although no battle has been fought since he left the vi-cinity of Springfield. Morgan has been com-pelled in the rapidity of his flight to abandon his wagons, caissons and some of his prisoners. The 56 guerillas who were captured in the neighborhood of Danville were members of Morgan's band, and are now in prison at Louisville. We have full confirmation of the announce ment that our forces are again in possession of Cumberland Gap, that important key to East Tennessee, and that the Kentucky Cavalry is still pursuing the rebel Morgan.

Another expedition is already in Fast Tennessee, and we have every confidence that with the retreat of Bragg to Chattanooga the entire State will be free from rebel dominion.

The United States Senatorship from Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 11.-Much excitement prevails in political circles to-night regarding the election of a United States Senator in the piace of the Hon. David Wilmot, to take place on Tuesday. A London letter says LL.D. Russell, the Times' first correspondent in this country, is publicly defending the Northern army against the charges of stupidity, inkumanity, &c., brought against it by one Col. McMurdo. Mr. Russell also goes so far as to defend Gen. Mc-Dowell's conduct at the battle of Buil Run.
We have always regarded Russell as more sinned against than sinning. He was "toadjed" by everybody when he came here, and the persons who feasted him turned upon him because he wrote of things independently, and not to suit his worshippers. He was twice the man Charles Mackey is, and we wish he was back again. He gave the North about the first intimation of the magnitude of the rebellion.— Portland Argus.

A Missouri letter in the Dubuque Times says tobacco is used among the natives in the rural districts indiscriminately by both sexes, children as well as acults, both for chewing and smoking. A foraging party near Hart ville recently called at a house, where they found a woman and thirteen children, the three eldest being girls, and all "chewing" a "power" of tobacco. One of the party remarking that she was the first woman he ever saw chewing tobacco, the old woman exclaimed, "Wal, now, bacco, the old woman exclaimed, "Wal, now, whar was you brought up? Never sees a woman chaw bacar! Guess you hain't been round much. Don't you have any ladies where you was raised ?"

"Betler's Cit-off."—There is a strong probability that the important work begun by Brig. Gen. Thomas Williams, of widening and deepening the "cut" made by him last fall, so to obviate the necessity of shipping passing Vicksburg, will be completed by nature. The Mississippi is rising and the rebels of Vicksburg are alarmed lest they be soon left high and dry four miles from navigable water. The New Orleans Delta, alluding to the matter, has "no doubt that before March next vegsels of all classes will be able to pass through Williams's cut," and that the course of the Mississippi river will be changed for all time." "BUTLER'S CUT-OFF."-There is a strong
